

Please Wait Up for Me

Sherwood

You won't ask then I won't tell
Anything about myself to you, honey, I'm an open book
A little hard to read that may be true
A little hard to read that may be true Am I worth your time?
I'm on the ground now and you won't ask me
How I fell tonight but I would tell you
Everything you want me to tonight So come on ask and I will tell
Everything about myself to you, honey, I'm an open book
And you and me are long sense overdue
And you and me are long sense overdue I think it's worth your time
I'm on the ground now and you won't ask me
How I fell tonight but I would tell you
Everything you want me to tonight But please wait up for me
This time I'll draw the line
And you won't laugh at me
If I see you start to leave Please wait up for me
Please wait up for me
Please wait up for me I'm on the ground now you won't ask me
How I fell tonight but I would tell you
Everything you want me to tonight
Please wait up for me
