Motion

Drumfish

City streets like a motion picture
Handed down from a holy scripture
There's something about you going to believe in all the words I say.
You're going to believe this now forevermoreDoes your mind line up with what you've found
Compared to all these words you've written down
Do you still believe in all the thoughts of your so called truth and now I sayWhere is the humanity in the streets?
You know that I just don't feel it anymore, don't feel it anymore
Brothers just don't love their brothers no more.I am talking about
Love
Love
Love
LoveTimes got this hold on me you know it seems to be a place of great uncertainty I've hidden it away in the center of my circle endlessly
If you wait for the moment when everything is perfect then you may never begin Down to the wire we go again
We go againWhere is the humanity in the streets?
You know that I just don't feel it anymore, don't feel it anymore
Brothers just don't love their brothers no more.I am talking about
Love
You can feel it on the inside
Love
Within you find the brightest light
Love
Everything you know
You dont' know
What you knowNothing was ever in your hands
Nothing was ever in mine
Only love remains when the illusion falls away
Let your mind gently hover over the details of your life
Let your life arise by letting be what isI am talking about
Love
You can see it on the inside
Love
Immerse yourself in higher light
Love

Everything you know
What you know
You dont' know
You can show
All you are is
Love
Love
Love
