Marianne

Cowboy Mouth

Never saw it coming can't believe everything he said to you getting hurt is nothing new it's something that we sometimes do Put away your sorrow try your best to try to find yourself again you might be scared to start, but then beginnings only come from ends [chorus]
if i could breathe your breath if i could hold your smile if i could dry your eyes if only for a little while then you might see me here hoping to hold your hand waiting to be your world
marianne
He never did deserve to find the joy growing in your secret heart a life within i did not start the kind of love that can't be bought Ya gotta keep believing all the things that make you who you want to be the part of you the world can't see the part of you that sets you free [chorus]
So if you need to take all the time to discover who is waiting behind you i'm right here behind you [chorus]

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/