

(It's Not War) Just the End of Love

Manic Street Preachers

To feel forgiveness, you gotta forgive
Do you see the stars or the darkness begin?
You fight your war, I fight for my life
You pay your dues, and I'll pay mine It's not war, just the end of love
Just like before, but it's never enough
Oh, it's never enough You fight your war, I fight for my life
You pay your dues, and I will pay mine
To feel forgiveness, you gotta forgive
It's lost on me, I believe in revenge It's not war, just the end of love
You've got the looks, but I've got the scars
It's not war, just the end of love To feel some tenderness, do you have to give up?
Do you have to give up?
Oh, do you have to give up? It's not war, just the end of love, just the end of
Just like before but it's never enough
It's not war, just the end of love
You weathered the storm, but sheltered the loss
But sheltered the loss, but sheltered the loss
