

Mather Knoll

Pinegrove

you said wake up when the curtains were movin out & in i said that might not be too far from the truth anywaysi'll buy you breakfast i'll buy you medicine
you're calling me out
you're calling me inlittle thoughts runnin
it's not a problem
it'll come back
i'll get to hand shakin
when I wanna
i can't be alone enough i can't be alone enoughwalkin awful quiet i could organize my head:
compartmentalizing it, starting out with our impediments i can't have breakfast without you calling me!
it's not a problem,
it'll come back.
when i wanna
i can't be alone enoughi can't be alone enough!
go back to the safe side go back to Mather Knoll
