

A Single Spark

Harry Manx

Outside it was pouring rain, what a day for letting go
You got drenched in doubt, yeah in doubt but even so
Laughed until you cried, nothing like the blues
Laughed until you cried, could've sworn the sky was blue
Could've sworn the sky was blue You burnt down a mountain, with just a single spark
Words became your candle that rid you of the dark
Laughed until you cried, nothing like the blues
Laughed until you cried, could've sworn the sky was blue
Could've sworn the sky was blue Above ain't only bright and below ain't only dark
You burnt down a mountain, with just a single spark
Laughed until you cried, nothing like the blues
Laughed until you cried, could've sworn the sky was blue
Could've sworn the sky was blue
