

Now's the Time

Val Stoecklein

Don't hide your love from me
Don't hide anymore
You are welcome by my side
And welcome at my door
It seems as though you were hurt once before
Don't be afraid anymore

Now's the time to believe in your heart
Now's the time to be sure
Now's the time to be sure

I don't want to know of your past
And things you used to believe
I don't care who's loved you before
That's not important to me
What matters is now and the love that can grow
Between us, you and me

Now's the time to believe in your heart
Now's the time to be free
Now's the time to be free

People will talk and try to ridicule
Don't you pay them no mind
I promise you someday you will see
We'll leave all their kind behind
There are places to go and so many things to see
Time to be alone

Now's the time to believe in your heart
Now's the time to come home
Now's the time to come home
