Stay

Wideawake

Which face do you see, which one is me?
I'm not sure if I'd know.
I would hide in my tears,
Hidin' for years, it's time to let go.
I wanna be free, and I want you to see.
I want you to know, the real me.

If I told you my secrets, will you let me stay? Will you run away?
And if I showed you my weakness, will you let me stay? Will you run away? Oh oh no.

What if I change, and what if I'm strange?
Will you still care?
And if I'm a hero, and I'm a zero, will you be there, for me?
I wanna be free, and I want you to see,
I want you to know, the real me.

If I told you my secrets, will you let me stay? Will you run away?
And if I showed you my weakness, will you let me stay? Will you run away? Oh oh oh.

Well I've never felt oh so alone.
And all I want is, to be known.
I'm not gunna die this way. No no.

If I told you my secrets, will you let me stay? Will you run away?
And if I showed you my weakness, will you let me stay? Will you run away?
Don't run away (Don't run away) No (x3)

Please don't run away, don't run away, no no no.
Don't run away.
Don't run away, won't you stay, won't you stay.
