I'd Give Anything

Wave

Hold on and hope for better change
Like the cloudy days that wash away by the warm summer rain
Singing songs as a way to carry on
Let my imagination take me where I belongForever I'll be waiting for a day togetherHey
I'll give anything
All of the love I bring
Oh oh oh to be closer to
Where all my dreams come true
Oh I'd give anythingFeels so good never to return
I'm on my way no holding back
With bridges left to burn (Bridges left to burn)
Memories some may come and go
But the ones that I remember
Are the ones that won't let goForever I'll be waiting for a day togetherHey
I'll give anything
All of the love I bring
Oh oh oh to be closer to
Where all my dreams come true
Oh I'd give anythingThere's a time and a place for everything
Lets hope I make it on the outside
There's a world that is strange andin between Let's hope I make it on the outsideHey
I'll give anything
All of the love I bring
Oh oh oh to be closer to
Where all my dreams come true
Oh I'd give anythingI'd give anything
To be closer to you
