

Tonight

Randy Meisner

Adams-Vallance
Who you gonna run to?
Now your ass is on the line
Who ya think you're foolin'
We ain't got the time
Don't try to tell me
Who was wrong or right
Don't see eye to eye
There's no point in tryin'
Changin' it all
Tonight, tonight let's leave it alone
Leave it alone tonight
We can't change it at all
Forget the things I've told you
Let's just sleep on it for now
It's your misunderstandin'
I don't want to hear you out
Two wrongs, baby
They don't make a right
It's hardly worth the heartache
So let's leave it alone
Leave it alone
Tonight, tonight
Let's leave it alone
Leave it alone, tonight
We can't change it at all
