

Still Falling

Saybia

Last night I woke
Lost, scared and soaked
In sweat, I lay in bed
Still falling from a rooftop And Im still trying to get
Closer to who I am
Who I am Twilight descends
Into a dark velvet painting of my life
Although theres light
Redemption seems so distant Enchant me with
The courage to believe
Won't you grant me
All the wisdom that I need? Yeah, yeah Im still trying to get
Closer to who I am
Who am I? Enchant me with the courage to believe
Won't you grant me all the wisdom that I need?
Grant me all the wisdom that I need
And enchant me with the courage to be free, to be free
