

End of the War (Rehearsal with Rob Mills)

Razor

Soldier, I've given you orders, you've got to be ready to fight Freedom is what we're defending, because it's our God given right Living a life without violence,
I know that you wish it was true Outlaws disturbing the world peace, now you know what you must do Leaders who crush human rights
They know what they're doing is wrong
Armies of organized death squads
They march to a different song
Rise up and teach them a lesson
They will not escape from the free Force them to give up the slaughter
And then you will finally see
The end of the war
People who protest on our side, they think that all war is insane Ignoring security threats, they can't offer an alternate way
No one wants to wage warfare
But sometimes you don't have a choice
No time for being naive
Instead we should speak with one voice Hoping that we'll see the day when war is a thing of the past Power in responsible hands will see that this war is the last Solving the issues around us depends on intelligent thought Regardless, we need our armed forces
In case a new war must be fought
Even the score, finish this war
No more!
