Napoleon

Tragedian

Fighting on the battlefields,hear the canons roar
Thousand bullets with my name on it
I try just to survive the warFires burning bright now the enemys in sight
We attack and maybe die in the fight against NapoleonThe republican king
Napoleon
Emperor of FranceNapoleon
The master of the art of war
NapoleonThe end of the day sees dead bodies all the way
Shattered on the ground,death is all around
Some last sights under blood red skies
But the battle rages on in the fight against NapoleonThe republican king
Napoleon
Emperor of FranceNapoleon
Napoleon
