

Still Weird

Seaway

I started singing when I understood that I was different from the boys and girls, when life was so simple and we banged our heads to the music on TVI see in different colours now

Still young, still weird but somehow

Somehow I found my stride through the wasted years

And your wasted liesI see in different colours nowAnd as the world turns, you've been missing every sign

Running colour blind

And as the world turns

I've been gaining peace of mindTake me by surprise; show me what it feels like

I found a reason to prove

It wouldn't be the first time caught between your dead eyes.

I found a reason to prove it takes a special kind of person to come out of this place with a purpose

It takes a special kind of person to come out of this place with a purposeI see in different colours nowAnd as the world turns, you've been missing every sign

Running colour blind

And as the world turns

I've been gaining peace of mindI see in different colours nowWhat you don't know is what I can't show

I won't explain how I made something from nothing

I'm better than nothingAnd

And as the world turns, you've been missing every sign

Running colour blind

And as the world turns

I've been gaining peace of mind

I see in different colours nowWhat you don't know is what I can't show

I won't explain how I made something from nothing

I'm better than nothing
