

Accident (Radio Edit)

Rachael Yamagata

I think he's in a jealous rage
She's probably not the easiest one to live with either
There's nothing worse than bitterness just splashed across the page
I don't think that either one of them are fit to be alive Oh, She'd just shut up and do what she does best
Show a little bit of skin but keep it all when she's undressed
And doesn't she know that she is doing it all wrong
You can't tell a joke, yeah while I'm listening to your song And all of this talking and all of this chatter is making me sick
Even though they say it doesn't matter
Let's put them in a room or maybe they should stay apart
Or maybe words are meant a mile, yeah let's fuck with their hearts There's no reason to change
So let's watch everybody bleed
'Cause everybody loves an accident
And everybody loves what they read I think he's gonna be a big star
A voice of social change to rearrange the world's perspective
But there's nothing better than watching him go down
He could pick up a habit or get in trouble that might be affective Oh, if he'd just shut off his conscience for one day
And take a cue from all of us and give us a song we can really play
Doesn't he know he's going down and going down fast
If he keeps on being difficult, he'll always come in last All of this talking and all of this chatter is making me sick
Even though they say it doesn't matter
Let's take away the stars and give while enough a add-on He's calling for backup but I'm strong enough to take that phone No man here needs to change
So let's go all have a beer
'Cause everybody loves an accident
And everybody loves what they hear Two sides working together
And working against one another
Two bad souls are destroyed
It's the nature of business
You know how this part is Oh look, they're losing all of their trust
Oh look, they're trying to bite the helping hand that feeds them
We put clothes on their backs and they took the money up front
Now they don't like what we're saying so let's up and leave them We would have done what they are doing anyway
So this shit about taking in the souls and life's lasting misery
We're gonna take them down and do it on the front page Gonna watch those little crooks come crawling back on bended knee All of this talking and all of this chatter is making me sick

Even though they say it doesn't matter
I'm becoming a bore, now I am wasting ashore
Now I'm still broken but the subjects been spoken 'Cause nobody here really wants to change
But it sure is fun to advertise a fight
We're feeding off each other once again
But now neither one of us will give an inch until I break I hope, I hope, I really hope, hope
I hope, I hope, I hope, I hope
