

Come Again?

Carbon Leaf

Please break away

Afraid you'll fray out on the game to shake change

They turn to graze and chase their shadows straight out of town
Grab a seat, here's a retreat to reckon with - please raise your glass
Season's come again. At long last, I'm long lost (but it won't last)

Minions cast opinions as they crowd outside my getaway
Hooray! Toast today! Begin this Social Event of the Century

Odd Scenery

Around in vain, I'll catch my tail

I missed your point, but anyway...

Shadows in the banquet hall recall the dance that did them in Shins, oh so thin. Should you not feel a part of anything?

Are these not the colorful lives we intended them to be?
Freedom painted me. Begin this Social Event of the Century

Odd Scenery

I'll catch my tail. Conversation failed

I missed your point, but anyway

Come again? Come again

Social epithets fly. Arms dig deep to rake this muck
Plague me for the fool. This rendezvous must self-destruct
Time to clear! The end is near! Too late, roll in Catastrophe

Blame me, it's Chaos Carnival of the Century

Odd Scenery

I'll catch my tail. Celebration failed

Come again. Come again?

Water off a duck's back (yet, your still on my lawn)
