

King of Your Dreams

At Vance

Somewhere between
The day and the night
You're hidin your aim's Waitin to fightFace of an angel old to be wise
but you are hidin
the devil in disguisewhere does it end and where do you want to go the borders you'll bend I guess you will never knowOpen your eyes try to be wise
and you'll be the king of your dreams tryin to see what you want to be then you'll be the king of your dreamsViolence and hate is the harvest you' ll get pay close attention
they might take your headdon't play with fire you won't stand the pain they call you a liar
they call you a shame
