

Never Forgotten Heroes

Rhapsody

Autumn is kissing valleys and hills
Shy Falin welcome me
Old trees are speaking to the holy wind
About ancient memories Sense of infinity prelude to memory
In the mystic Elgard's forest
Echoes their voice Airin 'the rose', Arwald 'the rock'
Great example of pure love
Warrior of ice thank you for all
From the creatures of the world All kneel before you dear old Aresius
We lived thousand great adventures
Kept in my dreams Fly to the crystal sky
Glorious and proud
Never forgotten friends of all
Heroes of the whole known world
May your fire burn in your hearts
And let the legend survive Fly to the crystal sky
Glorious and proud
Never forgotten friends of all
Heroes of the whole known world
May your fire burn in your hearts
And let the legend survive Fly to the crystal sky
Glorious and proud
Never forgotten friends of all
Heroes of the whole known world
May your fire burn in your hearts
And let the legend survive
