Silas

[unknown]

Silas says he'll take me far away
You can tell he means it by the look on his face
Run until the hurt and open road is far behind us
My SilasSilas says my name like it's a prayer
A quiet reverence hanging in the air
And as for demons running 'round my mind
You'll never find us
My SilasHow could I deserve him?
When I could never earn him?
All that I can see
Is how kind he is to meOn the nights I cry til I can't breathe
Silas stays with me until I sleep
Hands that hold my heart so tenderly
Could never bind us
My SilasI'm hopelessly romantic
And hopefully he can stand it
All that I can know
Is I never want to let him goSilas will be back for me one day.
