Don't You Wanna Know

Frankie B.

I wonder what's ahead for us
Can love really be enough
Is it worth all of our dreams
Is it worth everythingDon't you wanna know
Say yes and I won't let go
It can't be destiny
Unless we see where it leads
Don't you wanna know
Don't you wanna knowI'm asking things incessantly
Hoping for the world to speak
Can two hearts beat one truth
Is true love absoluteDon't you wanna know
Say yes and I won't let go
It can't be destiny
Unless we see where it leads
Don't you wanna know
Don't you wanna knowHow far our patience goes
How high our wisdom grows
How bright our passion glows
When we're old
I wanna knowI wonder what's ahead for us
Can love really be enough
Is it worth all of our dreams
Is it worth everythingDon't you wanna know
Say yes and I won't let go
It can't be destiny
Unless we see where it leads
Don't you wanna know
Don't you wanna know
Don't you wanna know
Don't you
