Hard To Believe

Cavo

It all seemed so pointless to say the words are just walking away your making this up as you go holding my dreams to make them your own it's not supposed to happen this way a head full of thought needs a break from all these mistakes that we made spreading myself to thin but I never found the words words that you can see words that could keep you with me and I know you may find this hard to believe somehow wherever you are we just need to find some escape when the best thing is walking away but I'm holding you up as you go taking my dreams and make them your own it's not supposed to happen this way but everyone here needs a break from countless mistakes we all made

words that would keep you with me
I never found the words words that you can see
wherever you are all your lies and all your smiles and all your friends are driving me wild all your day and all your nights and of those things we learn to despise if we breath in the night hold it inside colors won't change with the blink of an eye if we just find a way just find a way to behave
