

Gate 21 (feat. Auckland Philharmonia Orchestra)

Serj Tankian

The love that you bring
You bring me along
The pain that you give
It gives me a home Do you wanna stay by my side
Do you want me to turn and hide
We are disappearing inside
Seeing pictures of our goodbyes When we, we believe
That our love will survive
The pain that you bring
Brings me all alone Do you love me,
Do you hate me,
Do you wanna believe me,
Do you think that you don't need me
Do you wanna deceive me I can't think that it's all over, don't want to forget.
I can't live the disappointment down, I want to repress your
Goodbye
Goodbye The design, we broke the mold
The dreams when you see, that goodbyes aren't for long Please follow me
To the borders of destiny
I don't want to break from your side
The falling ground screams, goodbye Please follow me
To the borders of destiny
I don't want to break from your side
The falling ground screams, goodbye Goodbye
Goodbye
The design, we broke the mold
The dreams when you see, that goodbyes aren't for long
