Fearless

Shades Apart

I like the way you define happiness
You can't be satisfied unless you're bleeding
I'm here to undermine your power trip
It seems like years
Since you've been thinking clearly
I am fearless
Now you've got no one to push around
You can never take me down again
You're so content destroying everyone
It's like there's no one
Who will talk back to you
Stop sucking up all of the atmosphere
Don't take a breath until you think this over
I want to redefine your happiness
I'll take away the hate and spill it over
It's time to wake up from your dream state
It is impossible for you to stop me
