

T.A.P.O.A.F.O.M. (Fly Away)

George Clinton

The mothership will fly just like it always does
Fly away, fly away
The funk will survive just like it always does
Funk away, Funk Away
Youâ€™ll be here, holding your heart in your hands
Iâ€™ll be, here making impossible plans
To stay
Make plans to stay

(Teach me a new job?)
(Teach me a new job?)
(Teach me a new job?)
(Teach me a new job?)

The mothership will fly just like it always does
Fly away, fly away
The funk will survive just like it always does
Funk away, funk away
Youâ€™ll be here, holding your heart in your hands
Iâ€™ll be, here making impossible plans
To stay
Make plans to stay

Ooh, from the mountainside
Ooh, to the sea
Ooh, from the mountainside
Ooh, for all to see

The mothership will fly away
The mothership will fly away
Now is the day, you fly away
Take off, take to
Now is the day, to fly away
Itâ€™s not too soon

The mothership will fly just like it always does
Fly away, fly away
The funk will survive just like it always does
Funk away, Funk Away
Youâ€™ll be here, holding your heart in your hands

Iâ€™ll be, here making impossible plans

To stay

Make plans to stay

Ooh, from the mountainside

Ooh, to the sea

Ooh, from the mountainside

Ooh, for all to see

The mothership will fly away

Ooh, from the mountainside

Ooh, to the sea

Ooh, from the mountainside

Ooh, for all to see

See

(Low voice)

This is the bottom line, but seriouslyâ€¦!
