

Too Much 21st Century (The Delhi Dhol Mix)

Bauhaus

They all wanna be something better
A better singer
A better actor
Better job Better money
Better get her
Better lover
Better not Too much luck
Too much conceit
Give me one religion
It's too much
too much passion, information Too much selfish
Too much fake
Too much computer
Too much to take
It's too much Too much effort
Too much pig
Too much control, control
It's too much They all wanna be something better
A better singer
A better actor
Better job Better money
Better get her
Better lover
Better not Really, a better human
It's too much
It's too much
Ah yeah, ah yeah
