

As Rapture Fades

The Blood Divine

Destiny, once more
Cruelly tears my life apart
Don't bring that pain
To my aching heartAs fate descends
Impassive discontent
Rains down on meIf this is coma
Let me see the other sideMis is shrouding my aura
As I sense reality fading
Trance is my only escapeIs it fate? My rapture fades
Yeah, then I must find a meaning
Why I existTell me, tell me more, reveal to me
Do we live again?
Show me, show me truth, is there hope?
Hope to ever break freeOn the other side
I'll know what to do
I won't be missed
Let me go and I'll co-existPlease reveal the truth to me
Without that harmony
Will my rapture really fade?
Is it fate?
