World Beyond

Kreator

Reach for the reaper's scythe, sailing the river Styx
Watching the other side casting an ancient hex
Journey to the gates of hell, dying to break the bond
Nothing but a soul to sell, no room in Satan's pondFearless mind, ghost explores Specter flies, journey to the world beyondCasting off spheres of pain, revel in joy you've found
Laughing as colors fade, flying free and unbound
The bargain has been kept, from beyond the gate souls call
It's too late for regrets, on deaf ears pleading fallsFearless mind, ghost explores Specter flies, journey to the world beyondFearless mind, ghost explores
Specter flies, journey to the world beyondFearful mind, specter trapped
No return, welcome to the world beyond
