

I'm Gonna Help You

Jimmy Reed

Running away sure, ain't gonna help you
Oh girl, why won't you talk to me on the phone?

Every time I call, you disguise your voice

And tell me you're not at home
And girl this cold shoulder you're giving me

I don't understand

Could it be that you've already got yourself a man

If not
Running away sure, ain't gonna help you

I'm gonna get you girl, I'm gonna get now

Running away sure, ain't gonna help you

I'm gonna get you girl, I'm gonna get

Could it be, could it be

That you're afraid of me?

If so I never recall giving you a reason

You know how much I love you
