Do Something

Gorilla Zoe

Sip and skirt, trunk full of that work
Blowin' cigarillos stuffed full of that purp
Drunk, burp, shorty hit that muh'fucker
Bet that bitch convert
You don't like me, like what I say
Fuck you I'ma say it anyway
I think your favorite rapper is a sissy
I thought he was a gangster, why they got him lookin' pretty?
Tell them rainbow niggas to come and see me
I'll heavily cut ya, have your torso leaky
The only color I kill over is green
And over them white boys, I'll rupture your spleen
See what I mean? Niggas' hoe believe me
Come and get these hollow tips, my bullets got coppertini
A whole lotta niggas talk a whole lotta shit
But when it goes down they ain't fin' to do shit
Now, do something, do something, do anythang
Do something, do something, I mean anythang
A whole lotta niggas talk a whole lotta shit
But when it goes down they ain't fin' to do shit
Now, do something, do something, do anythang
Do something, do something, I mean anythang
Even if you're sellin' samples make a profit
Hoe you ain't makin' nuttin? Huh fuck nigga stop it
If you got it why not go on and cop it
Talkin' 'bout what you gon' do, nigga I think you poppin'
Niggas talk a lot but they ain't real doe
You bitch made nigga grab a dildo
Hundred round draw and lean back, do the limbo
You're playin' games with Donkey Kong on Nintendo
I'm King Kong, silverback Congo
Call me Gorilla but my real name 'Lonzo
Runnin' last set, 8 months and a fumble

Zoked you might be but big bro he head honcho
A whole lotta niggas talk a whole lotta shit
But when it goes down they ain't fin' to do shit
Now, do something, do something, do anythang
Do something, do something, I mean anythang

A whole lotta niggas talk a whole lotta shit
But when it goes down they ain't fin' to do shit
Now, do something, do something, do anythang
Do something, do something, I mean anythang
Puff some ad-libs and fuck a rap
I do it for my hood niggas in the fuckin' trap
Who's the king now? You the king of who?
I'm a feral motherfucker, welcome to the zoo
This the third verse let's get to a conclusion
Image is a smokescreen, rappers are illusions
There you go, I said it damn it
If you don't like, fuck ya nigga, go on do somethin' to me
I ain't fazed so they causin' repercussions
Dropped on your ass, try to do some reconstruction
Killer for real gon' handle these niggas
The block is the zoo and the world gon' feel us
These niggas can hate but these bitches gon' feel us
I'm king of the jungle they call me Gorilla
A whole lotta niggas talk a whole lotta shit
But when it goes down they ain't fin' to do shit
Now, do something, do something, do anythang
Do something, do something, I mean anythang
A whole lotta niggas talk a whole lotta shit
But when it goes down they ain't fin' to do shit
Now, do something, do something, do anythang
Do something, do something, I mean anythang
Do something
