By Default By Design

ABC

By default by design time after time
Maybe you earned it, maybe you spurned it
But you got it, you got itCall it attraction or charm sound the alarm
Maybe you earned it, maybe you spurned it
But you got it, yes, you got itBreaking hearts your specialty?
Why did you ever have to come so close to me
Was it love or morbid curiosity?
Either way I'd say that love's a possibilityCome a little closer
Let me see you in close detail
The object of my affections
Walked off in the other directionBy default by design time after time
Maybe you earned it, maybe you spurned it
But you got it, you got itCall it attraction or charm sound the alarm
Maybe you earned it, maybe you spurned it
But you got it, yes, you got itModern day Romeo's, modern day Juliet's
Selling their love for a packet of cigarettes
Still I remember the day what we first metAnd yet so far, so good so what else can we ever expect?
Come a little closer, let me see you in close detail
The object of my affections walked off in the other directionBy default by design time after time
Maybe you earned it, maybe you spurned it
But you got it, you got itCall it attraction or charm sound the alarm
Maybe you earned it, maybe you spurned it
But you got it, yes, you got it
