Heart Of Steel

At Vance

shadows so pale in the heat of the night fading to grey cause they're scared by the lightshootin their arrows with the wings of pain restless unkind but they keep on fightin in vaintryin to be who you are the harder you try the closer you'll get when you fight with a heart of steelbloodstains in red that cover your clothes telling the truth
'bout the souls that have passedthe things that you see as you read between the lines won't let you be 'cause they're just partners in crimetryin to be who you are the harder you try the closer you'll get when you fight with a heart of steel fightin a war you can't win the only things that stay are you're sins but you fight with a heart of steel
