Backstreet Boys

Backstreet

Listen upThis seems so hypnotic, smoke and mirrors, lights and magic

Paper faces in gold

There's soldier boys, beauty queens, everyone's a mystery

It's got me losing controlYearning, I'm yearning for the one to steal my eyes

Wanna play in this game of disguiseIt's a masquerade, a love parade

So won't you stay and dance with me?

All through the night and day

My masquerade, I need you, baby

So stay with me tonightMasquerade, masquerade

Masquerade, masquerade

Masquerade, masquerade

Masquerade, masqueradeJust like a perfect dream I don't ever wanna leave

A thousand freaks in the show

One's a tiger, one's a lynx, one's a king that suffering

Rolling high, moving lowBurning, I'm burning, can't you see it in my eyes?

Wanna play in this game of disguiseIt's a masquerade, a love parade

So won't you stay and dance with me?

All through the night and day

My masquerade, I need you, baby

So stay with me tonightMasquerade, masquerade

Masquerade, masquerade

Masquerade, masquerade

Masquerade, masqueradeI gotta know the girl behind the mask

Let me in, where you've been? Don't pretend

Don't gotta hide alone

Show your face to me, we could be everythingIt's a masquerade, a love parade

So won't you stay and dance with me?

All through the night and day

My masquerade, I need you, baby

So stayIt's a masquerade, a love parade

So won't you stay and dance with me?

All though the night and day

My masquerade, I need you, baby

So stay with me tonightMasquerade, masquerade

Masquerade, masquerade

Masquerade, masquerade

Masquerade, masquerade
