

Black Masquerade

Hazy Hamlet

I start to hear the screams
Fear echoes deep in my heart
In everywhere the destruction begins
And now I know who you are.

All's falling by your side
Now I Know your destination
This is the begining of the night
The end of "God's creation".

The Black Moon's Rising
Between the mist and the battle sounds
The council was conspired
And Decimated one by one

Blood and fire
Now were joined
In the taking of the throne.

I Know who you are
It's all in the Holy Writs
I know what you came for
The Emperor - is your name !

All the idols begin to fall
And there's nothing more to see
Emptiness is covering this place
Something new is rising here.

The Black Moon's Rising
Between the mist and the battle sounds
The council was conspired
And Decimated one by one

Blood and fire
Now were joined
In the taking
of the throne.

I Know who you are
It's all in the Holy Writs

I know what you came for
The Emperor - is your name !
