Until You Remember

Concerto Moon

(Verse)
Every night I pray, that you'll come back today
And hold me like, you used to do every night I spent oh just waiting on your scent
Or needing just a trace of you
(Chorus)
Well, I know it ain't refined, but I'll hold your place in line
'Til you remember that you're mine
(Verse)
It's not my first mistake
Oh, I'm sleeping wide awake.
You know I can't think straight, Oh, about you
Oh, and it's nothing that I planned, To let you slip right through my hands

Oh, I'm burning with a love, that's burned blue
(Chorus)
Well, I know it ain't refined, but I'll hold your place in line
'Til you remember that you're mine
(Hook)
Oh, I know it just ain't right, Holding on to you so tight
'Til you remember that you're mine
(Chorus)
Well, I know it ain't refined, but I'll hold your place in line
'Til you remember that you're mine
(Hook)
Oh, I know it just ain't right, Holding on to you so tight
'Til you remember that you're mine
