Valley Of The Kings

Saxon

Valley of the Kings
You must journey 'cross the Sea
Find the secret Dynasty
Burning Sand scorching Sun
To the land of the ancient one
The hidden Tomb the last in Line
Lost forever in Sands of Time
Find the Key unlock the Past
You have no choice this is your task
In the Valley of the Kings
There he waits on golden wings
Break the seal and set him free
The Golden one your destiny
Waiting there for you to come
A royal prince the chosen one move the stone unleash the past the one you seek you'll find at last the boyhood king he walks the past he hides behind his golden mask deep inside his tomb of gold the greatest story ever told Dig my friends set him free

Read the words the prophecy
Death will come on swiftest wings
Whoever moves this sleeping king
Carved in stone the book of death
The pharaos curse wil take your breath
Death will come on swiftest wings
For those who move this sleeping king Heed you now the book of death beware the curse with every step Shine the light the glint of gold
With racing hearts he past unfolds
Open now for all to see
A Pharaos tomb your legacy
In the Valley of the Kings
There he waits on golden wings
Break the seal and set him free

The Golden one your destiny
