

Punishment

Ashes Of Ares

They took away all that I am
From this dark place there can be no return
As I become master of my own destiny
    I will make right injustice
    Protect the innocent
...And punish the wickedI want you to know right now
    You're one step from the edge
    Something inside keeps telling me
    You're not long for this world
    Take some time to think about everyone
    That you have harmed in your life
    I will take their pain away
    When I bring your punishment
    Ask not why your time's in jeopardy
    Of coming to an end
    Your life has been blasphemy
    Destruction's all you know
    For this I will bring the hammer down
    Judgment has been made
    I will wash your sins away
    When I bring your punishmentFor the innocent
    I have risen
    Time won't heal all wound
So punishment will be givenThis is the path I've chosen
    It blocks the pain of failure I feel
    Losing you is killing me
    But I will not go without a fight
    For the innocent
    I have risen
    Time won't heal all wound
So punishment will be givenFor the innocent
    (For the innocent)
    I have risen
    (I have risen)
    Time won't heal all wound
    (Time won't heal all wound)
    So punishment will be given
    (So punishment will be given)
