Annabelle

Antje Duvekot

I wake up and I crawl out of bed Look in the mirror just to make sure I'm not dead I'm still asleep When I finally awake I pray to whoever that I'm not too late Where have I been? Please don't take Annabelle away Please don't take Annabelle away Please don't take Annabelle away And if you walk with me, I will walk with you And if you talk to me, Then I will talk to you And if you walk with me, Then I will walk... Look out my window And it's kind of dark Perfect day for a walk inside the park I'll supply the rain You ask me, I guess it ain't that bad Living life out of a paper bag Where have I been?

> Please don't take Annabelle away Please don't take Annabelle away Please don't take Annabelle away And if you walk with me, I will walk with you And if you talk to me, Then I will talk... And if you walk with me, I will walk with... Please don't take Annabelle away And if you walk with me,

Then I will walk with you And if you talk to me, Then I will talk to you And if you walk with me, Then I will walk with you
