

Who Are You

Scarlett Johansson

They're lining up
To mad dog your tilta whirl
3 shots for a dollar
Win a real live doll
All the lies that you tell
I believed them so well
Take them back
Take them back
To your red house
For that fearful leapInto the dark
I did my time
In the jail of your arms
Now Ophelia wants to know
Where she should turn
Tell me
What did you do
What did you
Do the last time?Why don't you do that
Go on ahead
And take this the wrong way
Time's not your friend
Do you cry
Do you pray
Do you wish them away
Do you still leave nothing
But bones in the way
Did you bury the carnival
Lions and all
Excuse me while
I sharpen my nails
And just
Who are you this time?You look rather tired
(Who drinks from your shoe)
Are you pretending to love
Well, I hear that it pays well
How do your pistol
And your Bible and your Sleeping pills go?
Are you still

Jumping out of windows
In expensive clothes? Well I fell in love
With your sailor's mouth
And your wounded eyes
You better get down on the floor
Don't you know this is war
Tell me who are you this time?
Tell me who are you this time?
