Shadow Man

Lucy Schwartz

Midnight comes, a thousand suns
Light fire to the sky
You're just a shadow in this land
Don't pretend, well aren't youEach day repeats, the same routine
You don't bother asking why
You're just a shadow of a man
Don't pretend, well aren't youSee that shadow man over there
Man in the mirror staring at you
See that shadow man if you can
'Cuz it's barely a man staring at youThinking back to your father's laugh
He'd say, boy I could care less
You're just a shadow of a man
You couldn't stand, well aren't youThe hopes you keep inside your dreams
Are anybody's guess
You're just a shadow of a man
You understand, well aren't youSee that shadow man over there
Man in the mirror staring at you
See that shadow man if you can
'Cuz it's barely a man staring at youOh, oh, oh
Whose gonna save you when
When you can't
Shadow manWhose gonna save you now
Tell me how
Shadow manSee that shadow man over there
Man in the mirror staring at you
See that shadow man if you can
'Cuz it's barely a man staring at you
