Musiq Soulchild

Yes, let's dance
It's music time, music time
Back to where we never left
You might as well put on your good outfit tonight
We feelin' good
If you stiff
Go home and put a pillow over your head
Where I'm at, you will always know this is me keeping track
I won't ever trip, I'm giving you the facts
There will never be any need to dispute
Whether or not I'm telling the truth
'Cause I am and I ain't got a thing to hide, no
Despite my reputation, yeah
Even though it's the world that I live in
You know that I'm with you, so
What you wanna know girl, I'll reply
You'll get every detail, I ain't gon' lie
As long as you can promise you'll do the same
Girl, I will tell you everything, you can ask me anything
Who I'm with, even if it happens to be some other chick
It's only business babe, so there's no need to trip
Baby, you can come too, see it's whatever you like
You can choose, oh girl
'Cause I ain't got a thing to hide, no
Despite my reputation, oh
Even though it's the world that I live in
You know that I'm with you, oh
What you wanna know girl, I'll reply
You'll get every detail, I ain't gon' lie
As long as you can promise you'll do the same
Girl, I will tell you everything, you can ask me anything
Musiq please
Let me clear my throat
Slip us in a robe while we on that boat
Matchin' they PJ yeah, that sound dope
Came from Aspen, we ridin' in the Ashton
Martin baby, hit the margello tops
Don't worry about it 'cause of mere small bumps
5 minutes, I can have the superstar status

10 minutes, I can the global status
On a born express
Don't worry 'bout nothin' I got the rest
And if I ever do this o'er now
Let the music touch your Soulchild
Anything you need, anything a little more comfortable
I'm with it, so keep the drama to yourself, just quit it, yeah
There's no way to grow
I'm way too grown so I'll leave you alone
What you wanna know girl, I'll reply
You'll get every detail, I ain't gon' lie
As long as you can promise you'll do the same
Girl, I will tell you everything, you can ask me anything
Take every piece of information
See you can have it all, girl, I ain't gon' front
As long as you can promise you'll do the same
Girl, I will tell you everything, you can ask me anything, anything
Hands up, hands up, hands up, hands up
Hands up, hands up, hands up, it's music time
Hands up, hands up, hands up, hands up
Ladies and gentlemen
Hands up, hands up, hands up, hands up
Hands up, hands up, hands up, it's music time
Hands up, hands up, hands up, hands up
Ladies and gentlemen
