

Reverie

Bob Wilber

I have you in my dreams at night you were holding my hands then I awake and you're not mine now it's time to rise I want to turn cold ice in my soul got to freeze this yearning inside When you're inflicted by the passion of love desire and yearning the deeper they burn
you were...

now it's too late
you were...
Now you're gone
It's too late
I was wrong
It's my fate
"I think of you and I see me I'm the one I thought I've never be I feel dirty - no purity desire and yearning in you heart no mercy for you no mercy for me."
