

Holding On

Madi Lee

I don't know why
But something 'bout him
Lights up my entire world
You're all I'm thinking about
Still hoping you'll be mine
I just can't forget this
I guess the truth is I've never felt this way about anyone before
And all it's doing is killing me
Oh, can't you see? I have wanted this for so long
I don't want you to be gone
But I still keep holding on
I don't know how much I can take
I don't wanna feel this way
But I still keep holding on
I wished, I wished upon a star
That you'd be with me tonight
Oh, I'm sick of missing you
And it's all that I do
'Cause I'm losing my mind
And I keep asking myself, "Oh, why?" I've never felt this way about anyone before
And all it's doing is killing me
Oh, can't you see? I have wanted this for so long
I don't want you to be gone
But I still keep holding on
(I'm holding, I'm holding on) I don't know how much I can take
I don't wanna feel this way
But I still keep holding on
I want you so bad
But it's time to face the facts
There's nothing else I can do
I hate to say it
You broke me
And now I cannot pick up the pieces I have wanted this for so long (for so long)
I don't want you to be gone (to be gone)
But I still keep holding on
(I'm holding, I'm holding on) I don't know how much I can take (yeah)
I don't wanna feel this way
But I still keep holding on Still keep holding on Yeah

Oooh

I'm holding on

I'm still holding on

I'm holding on

I'm holding on
