

Crossroads (Non-Album Track)

Avenged Sevenfold

I've been traveling for so long
So lost till I stumbled upon
Two roads in front of me
I've got to take my time To the right I could see a church
I took a step in that direction first
But to the left there was a watering hole
Where they were whiskey drunk
And now that's where I wanna pray
The fight down here goes on and on If I was perfect then this would be easy
Either road's plausible on both I could drown
I walk through the center with no rules to guide me
I realize it's difficult but now I can see There's gotta be another way to go
A way that's much more feasible
A combination of all these lives
A central path without choosing a side I make decisions one at a time
And no I never say I'm always right
I'm confident that when I stand on my own
You'll see the truest form of a man
When I'm shining through
The fight down here goes on and on If I was perfect then this would be easy
Either road's plausible on both I could drown
I walk through the center with no rules to guide me
I realize it's difficult but now I can see Oh, I hear them now
All the religious rhymes
(Anger I see, anger I see, anger I see now) The left isn't better
It's just more of the same
Condemning all these people
For what they believe I'll climb to the top of their mountain again
No harness up to save me this way
And the closer to the top I get
The more they take aim but I'm not you I may not be perfect but I've always been true
I may not be worthy in your eyes
Climb up from the bottom for the last time
The last one, the last one, the last time If I was perfect then this would be easy
Either road's plausible on both I could drown
I walk through the center with no rules to guide me
I realize it's difficult but now I can see, yeah
