Noir

William Control

i am near the end
i've accomplished nothing and when i fall into the sky oblivion i am on the egde
no strength to fly
but when i look into the screen i see your eyes

you are
the beautiful noir
a cinematic film
that only i see

i lie awake at night
just to watch you breath and the sun rise
on your skin
Our silver plays
In my darker days
This is the last time
I say goodbye

you are
that only i see

you are beautiful noir
