Open Heavens

BarlowGirl

A cry rises from the ground
And all the earth begins to shake
Can you feel the Spirit move you
Calling all heart to wake?Life is rising from these graves
A voice breaks the silence
And it warms the dying hearts
Oh, this is just the start'Cause we will open heavens
And we'll start the flame now
All the earth will shake now
As we scream Your nameOur eyes have been opened wide
And passion filling every place
And now's the time so let it move you
'Cause somethings about to breakWe are falling on our face
Searching for movement
Give us fire in these days
Oh Spirit, lead the way'Cause we will open heavens
And we'll start the flame now
All the earth will shake now
As we scream Your name'Cause we will open heavens
And we'll start the flame now
All the earth will shake now
As we scream Your nameHallelujah, singing hallelujah
We will cry out from our hearts now
HallelujahSinging hallelujah, singing hallelujah
Singing hallelujah
We will cry out from our hearts now
HallelujahHallelujah
We will cry out from our hearts now
Hallelujah
