Whatever It Takes

Letter Kills

The sun will rise again
Breaking through the clouds
And this is our way out
Oh, I tried to talk to you
Feeling that attack, cause it's been pushin' on my back
And it screams so loud
Listen for the sentiment, listen for the sound
And whatever it takes we won't know until we meet again
And whatever it takes we won't know until we meet again
The boys will run again
Running gun in hand
We'll make it back alright
I tried to talk to you
But you weren't in my sight
Cause I've been looking up all night
And I can hear them start to fight
Listen for the sentiment, listen for the sound
Whatever it takes we won't know until we meet again
Whatever it takes we won't know until we meet again
And so I'll wait for the rising sun
And so I'll wait, I'll wait
Alright
Come on, come on, come on
I listen for the sentiment, listen for the sound
Whatever it takes we won't know until we meet again
Whatever it takes we won't know until we meet again
