Hazy (feat. William Fitzsimmons)

Rosi Golan

(Rosi)
I watched you sleeping quietly in my bed
You don't know this now but there's some things that need to be said
And it's all that I can hear
It's more than I can bareWhat if I fall and hurt myself?
Would you know how to fix me?
What if I went and lost myself?
Would you know where to find me?
If I forgot who I am,
Would you please remind me?
Oh,
"Cause without you things go hazy(William)
I watched you sleeping quietly in my bed
You don't know this now but there's some things that need to be said
It's all that I can hear
It's more than I can bareWhat if I fall and hurt myself?
Would you know how to fix me?
What if I went and lost myself?
Would you know where to find me?
If I forgot who I am,
Would you please remind me?
Oh,
Cause without you things go hazy(Both)
What if I fall and hurt myself?
Would you know how to fix me?
What if I went and lost myself?
Would you know where to find me?
If I forgot who I am,
Would you please remind me?
Oh,(Rosi)
Cause without you things go hazy
