Screaming At Me

P.M. Dawn

I can hear me now
Telling me it's my life
I can hear me now
Telling me I'm okay at least until the sun goes downI can hear me now
Talking to all my tears
I can hear me now
Telling me to stay away but begging me not to go too farThere's nothing wrong with your life
Yes, I'm putting all the squares in the circles
Freedom's only grieving for now
'Cause I'm not wasting no more lifetimes screaming at me
Screaming at meI can see me now
Kissing me and putting me to bed
I can hear me now
Telling me I'm alright even when I break my heartNo, theres nothing wrong with this life
You can put all your worlds on this circle
I can never kiss me goodbye
'Cause I'll be spending my whole lifetime screaming at me
Screaming at meFlesh only matters in life
You can't believe your whole world's on this circle, baby no
Spirit's are bleeding from my mind
'Cause I'm just wasting all my lifetimeConstantly wasting all my lifetimes
I'm just so tired of wasting all my lifetimes screaming at me
Screaming at me, screaming at me, screaming at m
