

Independence Day

Janie Fricke

Do you know how it hurts when a fairytale burns?

Love is a refugee

Ain't that absurd?

You know how it feels

When sudden dreams slowly fade to grey

This is my independence day

She said she'd never love again

Because he broke her heart

And now she's blaming him

But he told her from the start

That what they had was special

But it ain't really love

Although he gave her everything

She never had his heart

But that's all that she needs

So what's tearing her apart?

'Cause loving him is hard

But that's all she really wants

She treats him like a king

And he treats her like a queen

But when he don't come home

He don't tell her where he's been

But she already knows

He got lipstick in his clothes

It's the message in his phone

And the smell of his cologne

But she don't say a tone or even moan

She don't stress, fight or fuss

She just keeps it to her own

When she cries, she dries her eyes

She never lied in her life

So his lies sound like knives every night

In the morning she's all right

'Cause she don't wanna fight

But tonight she'll be gone forever

Do you know how it hurts when a fairytale burns?

Love is a refugee

Ain't that absurd?

You know how it feels

When sudden dreams slowly fade to grey

 This is my independence day

 He said he'd never love again

 'Cause he don't want the pain

 Of having someone special

 Do that shit to him again

 And though it ain't his fault

 There ain't no-one else to blame

 For all those sunny days

 When all you see is rain

 All you got are memories

 But that just ain't the same

 'Cause the woman that he loved

 Must have simply gone away

 And everyday he wakes up

 Feeling like he's up in chains

 And now her sweetest touch

 Is like a shot to his brain

 And this is just a shame

 'Cause she don't say a thing

 Except to break his heart

 Like she's in a wicked game

 That he ain't trying to play

 But he's stuck trying to win

 'Cause he's stuck loving someone

 Who just ain't in love with him

 But he's in love with her

 And this is where it hurts

 No but she don't give a damn

 Or even know his worth

 She treats him like he's dirt

 That she can throw away

 But he ain't going away

 'Cause today's gonna be the day

Do you know how it hurts when a fairytale burns?

 Love is a refugee

 Ain't that absurd?

 You know how it feels

When sudden dreams slowly fade to grey

 This is my independence day

 So forgive me but I'm gone now

 'Cause I'm free and I'm never coming home now

 I'll find hope in forever

 'Cause I'm thrown now

And I'm flying and I ain't gonna go down
I used to think we were magic but slow down
You didn't know what you had when you had it
And now you realise that it's gone like magic
And I guess you really want me back, right?

Well, forget it

Do you know how it hurts when a fairytale burns?

Love is a refugee

Ain't that absurd?

You know how it feels

When sudden dreams slowly fade to grey

This is my independence day

Do you know how it hurts when a fairytale burns?

Love is a refugee

Ain't that absurd?

You know how it feels

When sudden dreams slowly fade to grey
