

Empty Hearts

Alison Krauss

Are you leaving, are you going?
Did you think you could lose that feeling
Without me knowing? Are you wishing, you'd never met me?
Does it take some train whistle blowing
To forget me? All the losing and the knowing
That you love her still
Could be nothing
To what empty hearts must feel
Tell me what an empty heart must feel Are you leaving, are you going?
Did you think you could lose that feeling
Without me knowing?
